

Legacy of the Class of 2013

Our class would like to be known as young men and women

❖ Who act as role models for younger students and encourage others to do the same

- Who lead younger kids by improving our behavior
- Who show our equality, not our power over younger classes

❖ Who are good leaders

- Make good choices/do the right thing
- Do what is asked of us
- Take the initiative at times
- Act responsibly/ are accountable for our actions
- Treat others with respect
- Behave maturely
- Who act as individuals and accept each other's differences
- Show resilience by forgiving when problems arise

❖ Who make school fun, but can be serious when necessary

- Show school spirit
- Are active in school activities
- Have a cheerful, friendly attitude
- Encourage more school spirit activities/ self expression
- Reach out to make new friends

❖ Who are hard-working and care about academics

- Always do our homework
- Help each other learn
- Participate in class/encourage others to do so
- Respect our teachers and classmates the classroom
- Study hard for tests

- Always try our best

❖ Whose faith is important to us

- Show that God is important to us and will be in our lives after we leave SCL
- Participate in mass by singing and responding
- Participate in prayer in the classroom
- Follow the Olweus rules
- Continue to do service regularly